Meet Ms. Jessica

Hi! I'm Ms. Jessica

Welcome!

Hi, my name is Jessica Machorro. I am very excited to be a part of your child's Journey, knowledge, self discovery, and imagination!

I grew up in Denver, Colorado and I have lived in Denver for my whole life. I absolutely love it here and my favorite time of year is when fall comes around! As the oldest sister I have always been surrounded by kids and as I have gotten older I realized that working with kids is truly what I love to do. I pride myself in my understanding personality and for always paying attention to what each individual child needs.

Each and every day I believe there is an opportunity to improve and grow.

Outside of work I enjoy spending time with my family. While I do not have any children of my own yet, I do have two little guinea pigs and two little turtles that I love spending free time with.

I look forward to meeting everyone and getting to watch all the kiddos grow and learn!

Sincerely,

Ms. Jessica
