

Meet Ms. Lesly

Hí! I'm Ms. Lesly

Welcome!

A Little Bit About Me

When I am not teaching, I spend my free time with my husband. We love watching tv shows, shopping, movies, or riding horses. On the weekends, I am spending time with family, or out to eat with them.

Welcome to Tiny Hearts Academy! I feel very fortunate and grateful to be a part of the Tiny Hearts Academy family and to be a part of the daily lives of your little ones. I love seeing them grow up and explore their creativity. Each and every day is a different day, and I am excited to grow with them.

I have always loved kids and grew up taking care of the little ones in my family. I have a little niece that I like to take out for ice cream and spend a girls afternoon with. To be a teacher is a dream come true and I hope to only get better and better each day. My favorite part of teaching is seeing their smiling faces and curiosity develop. It is the sweetest thing to see when they start to recognize you and show you their unconditional love. Please stop by and say hey! I can't wait to get to know your little one!
